

ABUSE IN RELATIONSHIPS IS: Any pattern of behavior by one person that causes another person to do anything they do not want to do, prevent them from doing something they want to do, or causes them to be afraid. Abuse can be verbal, physical, sexual, emotional, economic, social, psychological, or spiritual and can happen to couples who are married, living together, or who are dating.

