

CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PEACE SAVING LIVES TRAINING SERIES

KNOWING HOW TO CONNECT THOSE YOU
SERVE TO CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PEACE CAN HELP SAVE LIVES

CONTACT JACKIE PALACIOS LEARNING SYSTEMS MANAGER

jpalacios@c4dp.org

All trainings can be offered in English and Spanish

"After the training I was no longer nervous about talking with my clients in questionable relationships."

CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PEACE
Working Together to End Domestic Violence

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE 101:

This 1 hour training provides an introduction to domestic violence.

BECOME A C4DP CONNECTOR:

This 1 hour training describes the services offered by Center for Domestic Peace.

RISK LEVEL ASSESSOR:

Eligibility: Completion of C4DP Connector Training

This 2.5 hour training will teach you how to assess the lethality level of relationships with domestic violence.

PARENT TRAINING: "SHOULD I TALK TO MY KIDS ABOUT WHAT THEY SAW OR HEARD?"

1.5 hour training for parents to learn the effects of adult's unhealthy relating and how to talk to their children.

LEARN:

- Definitions and data on domestic violence
- The warning signs of an unhealthy relationship
- The pattern of abuse
- The different types of abuse

LEARN:

- How to connect youth and adults to Center for Domestic Peace
- How to access our emergency shelter
- To explain how victims and abusers can get help
- About our therapy programs
- About C4DP services for child witnesses

LEARN:

- The 5 domestic violence Risk Level Assessor Steps
- Questions that help evaluate lethality risk
- How to support survivors and connect them to C4DP

LEARN:

- How to tell if child/ren have been affected by an unhealthy adult relationship.
- 3 ways to help children who have been affected by unhealthy adult relationships.
- Review how Center for Domestic Peace can help.