DISCUSSION- 15 min

- a. COMMUNITY TRUST: “Will I be helped or not?”

An open discussion facilitated by Kate Kain, about what holds survivors back from getting help.

Collaborators listed many factors that make seeking help difficult for the survivor, from cultural beliefs to economic factors to victim blaming.

Ideas were shared regarding what to do about these gaps and how to reach survivors. A “You are Not Alone” campaign was discussed as well as an idea to show community members the web of services offered in Marin. These ideas were documented for future discussion/project.
