VI. CALL TO ACTION:

Utilizing the CCR to End Abuse in Later Life by creating an updated service delivery system for older survivors 50+ with a focus on marginalized AA/B survivors

a. Quick Round:

- 1. What do our AA/B 50+ DV survivors need from our response system?
- 2. Where do our 50+ survivors currently seek help?
- 3. What training does your agency need to better support survivors 50+ and up?

b. Unconscious Bias Training Resources for 50+

VII. CALL TO ACTION:

Utilizing the CCR to promote safety, healing, and recovery for children 0-10 exposed to domestic violence and their non abusing parent

Quick Round: Time for critical thinking and problem solving about our intervention efforts, system gaps, and responses to children exposed to domestic violence in Marin.

a. Quick Round:

- 1. In your opinion, what holds parents who are DV survivors back from getting help?
- 2. Where would parents with young kids most likely get information on healthy relationships/domestic violence?
- 3. What would make it easier for our parents who are DV survivors to get help?

VIII. NEXT GENERAL SESSION: June 11th, 2025, 1:00 – 3:00 pm
